ABOUT

NEWTON film is a Breda based production company that was founded in 2006. We produce high-quality, author-driven, creative documentary films with a social, economical or cultural perspective. We focus on documentaries that challenge and surprise and clearly bear the director's signature. Films that bring the viewer close to the perception of the main characters and in which the special and tense relationship between the individual and the surrounding world plays an important role. We work with the best professionals from the field and arrange the best team for each project. Our experience, professional approach and involvement with both crew as characters during the whole process of the film is the key essence for success. Our films have been selected and awarded on the world's biggest documentary and film festivals.
